Title: Pearls of Normandy: Rouen – Honfleur – Deauville
Paris-Rouen-Honfleur-Deauville/Trouville-Paris /Normandy

12.03.2026

We invite you on an excursion from Paris to Normandy

Route: Paris-Rouen-Honfleur-Deauville/Trouville-Paris

1-day excursion to the Normandy region

 12.03.2026 – 1 day (~12:00h)

 Departure 08:00

Departure/return location: Place du Trocadéro et du 11 Novembre, Paris, France (metro station "Trocadéro").

 Return to Paris: 20:00–21:00

1st stop – Rouen

 ~09:45–12:00 city visit / free time

Rouen is a historic city in Normandy, in northern France, on the Seine River. It is known for its well-preserved medieval old town, half-timbered houses and the impressive Rouen Cathedral, which was depicted in the works of painter Claude Monet.

The city plays an important role in the history of France — it was in Rouen that Joan of Arc was executed in 1431. Today, Rouen is a lively cultural and university city with rich architectural heritage, museums and an active art life.

What we will see:

 Rouen Cathedral – impressive Gothic cathedral (also painted in Claude Monet's works)

 Gros-Horloge – 14th century astronomical clock

 Place du Vieux-Marché – the place where Joan of Arc was executed

Walk through medieval streets with half-timbered houses

 Short coffee break in the old town

2nd stop – Honfleur

 ~13:15–15:00 (lunch + city tour)

Honfleur is a picturesque port town in Normandy, in northern France, at the mouth of the Seine into the English Channel. It is famous for its historic harbor Vieux Bassin, colorful houses and narrow cobble streets.

The town has inspired many artists, especially the Impressionists, and today it is a popular tourist destination with art galleries, restaurants and a romantic atmosphere.

Program:

🍴 Lunch at a harbor restaurant (opportunity to taste seafood or Normandy galettes) – individually or as a group (depending on availability).

After lunch:

📍 Vieux Bassin – picturesque harbor with colorful houses

🏰 Église Sainte-Catherine – the largest wooden church in France

3rd stop – Deauville / Trouville-sur-Mer

🕒 ~15:30–17:30 (city tour / free time)

Deauville and Trouville-sur-Mer are elegant Normandy resorts on the coast of the English Channel, separated only by a small river.

Deauville is known for its wide sandy beach, famous wooden promenade (Les Planches), casino and film festival. Meanwhile, Trouville has preserved a more authentic fishing town atmosphere with a picturesque harbor, fish market and cozy streets.

Both towns offer a perfect place to relax by the sea with a romantic and refined atmosphere.

What we will see:

🌊 Deauville beach and "Les Planches" promenade

🎬 Famous American Film Festival resort

🎰 Casino Barrière Deauville

📍 Walk to Trouville harbor (romantic atmosphere)

Free time for coffee or a walk along the ocean
