Château d'Amboise	Château d'Amboise - Castle visit A royal residence with a panoramic view over the Loire. The castle is located in Amboise, on the banks of the Loire River, France. It was built in the 15th–16th centuries and was an important residence of French kings during the Renaissance. The castle flourished especially during the reigns of Charles VIII of France and Francis I of France. The Chapel of Saint Hubert is located here, where Leonardo da Vinci is buried. From the castle terraces, there is a beautiful view over the Loire Valley. It is one of the most remarkable historical castles in the Loire Valley. 🍽️ Lunch / Free time in Amboise center ~12:00–13:00 individually or as a group (subject to availability).
Château du Clos Lucé	Château du Clos Lucé -Castle visit It is best known as the place where Leonardo da Vinci spent the last three years of his life (1516–1519), following the invitation of King Francis I of France. The castle was built in the 15th century and is connected to Amboise Castle by an underground passage. Today, it houses a museum displaying models of Leonardo's inventions, his workshop, and Renaissance interiors. Surrounding the castle is a large park with an open-air exhibition of mechanisms and inventions. 👤 Clos Lucé – Leonardo da Vinci's last residence It is one of the most popular Renaissance attractions in the Loire Valley.
Château de Chenonceau	Château de Chenonceau - Castle visit / Free time <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The famous "Ladies' Castle" above the River Cher • Renaissance interiors • French gardens The castle is located in the Loire Valley, near Chenonceaux, France. It was built in the 16th century and is one of the most beautiful Renaissance castles in France.

	The castle is unique because it is built across the River Cher – its gallery stretches directly over the water. Chenonceau is often called the "Ladies' Castle" because women such as Diane de Poitiers and Catherine de' Medici played an important role in its development. Today, the castle is a popular tourist attraction with luxurious interiors and beautiful gardens.
